We now have a Community Cupboard!

What is a Community Cupboard?

A Community Cupboard is used anyone can access non-perishable food and hygiene products. It's also a place where anyone can donate those same items. There are no limits, no restrictions, no sign up sheets. It's open whenever our office is open (typically Monday – Thursday, 8:00am – 4:00pm). Come in and help yourself! We can not guarantee anything being 'in stock' or know when/if it will be back.

However, we are overloaded with many items right now including pasta, tomato sauce, beans, lentils, sesame oil, canned tuna, and canned turkey. Come help yourself and us, by using this free food service.

The New Ross Family Resource Centre would like to say THANK YOU to the following people who have gone above and beyond to help us with different projects and fundraisers.

Caregivers Nova Scotia Presentation & Workshop: Thursday, October 20, 2022.

Pre-Registration is required, we need a minimum of 10 participants to bring them here.

The morning will be a one-hour presentation on the Programs & Services that Caregivers Nova Scotia can offer. This is open to anyone who is interested in learning more. The presentation will explain who they are and how they help. It highlights services such as our confidential telephone and email support, monthly peer support groups, educational workshops, information, and referrals. They will also show you how to get the most out of their website's many resources.

We will then serve a light lunch for anyone is attending the morning or afternoon session.

The afternoon will be a three-hour workshop will be for participants who are currently taking care of a family member or friend. This workshop is called, "Advance Care Planning for Caregivers". It will help participants to start thinking about their future healthcare wishes and to start this important conversation with family, friends, healthcare providers, etc. Participants will also be given the tools and information to start creating an advance care plan for themselves.

You can find out more about Caregivers Nova Scotia at www.caregiversns.org/

Free Counseling for Women in New Ross

Information from Nicole Robson about her counselling services:

My name is Nicole Robson and I am the Outreach Coordinator at Second Story Women's Centre. I am happy to say that due to the support of the New Ross Family Resource Centre I will be able to offer some one-on-one counselling support every two weeks in New Ross. Second Story offers support through a trauma informed approach, and I have worked with people dealing with anxiety, depression, trauma, and grief and loss. I like to work from a strength-based approach, and use tools such as mindfulness, and grounding techniques.

If you have any questions or would like to schedule an appointment, please call: 902-541-0343.

In Memory

Richard Joseph LeBlanc – Dartmouth / East Dalhousie Nova Scotia

Passed away suddenly July 16, 2022. He served in the Reserve Battalion 33 as a driver instructor and examiner and worked at Commissionaires NS. Ricky was always there to help his friends, share stories and a laugh. He had a big heart and a larger sense of humor. A great marksman who enjoyed hunting and being in the outdoors. Your family and friends will miss you. Rest in Peace.

He was the son of the late Gaily and Anges LeBlanc. He is survived by his sister Kathy Duncan,

Nieces: Brandie Harquail, Melanie Harvie, Sarah Harvie, Christina Hamilton, Nephew: Sean Harquail

With Thanks

“Memories of those we’ve loved stay close to us, keeping our hearts company.”

We would like to thank everyone for their kind words, cards, phone calls and donations made in Dad’s honor.

The attendance at his funeral shows the impact he had on so many lives. He was a kind and selfless man and has finally gotten his last wish...to be called home by God.

Thank you to Pastor Rick for his loving words; to the Friends of Ashton who sang his favourite hymn! “Take Up Thy Cross” and to Chris Bland for accompanying them.

Thank you to his Masonic Brothers for attending and delivering such a moving service.

For us as his family, Dad’s passing leaves a tremendous void in our lives. However, we take solace in knowing he has finally been reunited with mom.

Lovingly,
Mary Ann, Haldon, Vienna and families

The children of the late Twilah Keddy, Carole, Lana, Nova and Ryan would like to extend our heartfelt appreciation to the community of New Ross, friends and family for the love and support shown to us through prayers, visits, cards and donations.

We would also like to thank the following individuals and organisations: the Valley Regional Hospital ICU staff and the Respiratory team, Carole Meister for updating concerned friends and family; Briana Morine (granddaughter) and the staff of White's Funeral Home for their compassionate care; Pastor Rick Small for his message of faith and genuine regard for Mom; Colette Gates as organist during the funeral; Craig Meister for sharing words of Remembrance; Danny Banfield for providing the music for Lana, Tiffany and Taryn's special music; Blair Hiltz for coordinating the refreshments at the gathering following the funeral; the Forties Community Centre, and the Keddy family for postponing the Keddy reunion to allow for Mom's funeral reception to take place.

Carole, Lana, Nova and Ryan would like to thank all who have reached out to us to share stories of all the ways Mom had touched people's lives in small and meaningful ways. It has been a source of comfort to know that so many people have been touched by Mom and share our grief. It is also comforting to know that Mom's faith sustained her and led her Home.

~ Carole, Lana, Nova, Ryan and Families

IN LOVING MEMORY

OF

Twilah Keddy

"Sisters are the bright, blooming flowers on every family tree."

Many thanks are extended to friends and relatives in the New Ross area and beyond, following the hospitalization and death of my sister, Twilah Keddy. During her short period of illness, and following her death, numerous phone calls were received, food was brought to the house, and memorial donations were made to several charities. Every act of kindness, every hug, and expression of sympathy was appreciated, and showed the impact she had on her church and community. The special music, words of remembrance, and Pastor Rick's comforting funeral message, helped to ease the sadness at this time. Finally, thanks to Twilah's family for their love and support, and to my own family for "being there" for me.

~ Carole Meister

New Ross Outdoor Rink

Over last two winters a dedicated group of volunteers, with the help of the New Ross Volunteer Fire Department, Farmers Association, Development Society, and community members, have worked countless hours to create an outdoor skating rink underneath the pulling arena at the New Ross Fairgrounds. This skating surface has been very popular with skaters of all ages, so much so that the New Ross Rink Committee is now working towards the goal of purchasing a 40 ft by 80 ft rink kit. This rink kit will provide a slightly larger ice surface, simple assembly, and the ability to grow with the needs of the community. Fundraising and grant applications for this project have started with the hopes of reaching our goal this fall so the new improved rink will be in place for this upcoming winter. To date we have raised $6,200 of our $18,000 goal.

The Rink Committee is now asking the community for their continued support to help make this project a reality. By donating you will help get this project up and running. We can issue tax deductible receipts and donations need to be made out to the New Ross Volunteer Fire Department with New Ross Rink in the memo line. Thank you for helping us bring this idea to life.

Donation Options

By Mail: Please send cheque to:

From 1-3 at the Family Resource Centre

All ages welcome, men, women and children!

Come on out and see what this sport is all about!

FREE!!!

Builder Needed!

The Resource Centre is still looking for someone willing to volunteer their time to build a “little library” for us. Directions and Supplies needed will be provided.

A “little library” is a “take a book, return a book” free book exchange. Have books you or your children no longer read? Place them in the “little library” for others to enjoy. Want a book and don’t have one to donate? No problem!

This project is an exciting one if we can just find someone willing to help us build it.

Could this be you?

Congratulations!

Shown here is Bruce Lenihan picking up the 2 day adult pass he won by finding 1 of 5 Coupon Vouchers that were inserted randomly in the August edition of the Flyer. Janet Keddy was also a lucky winner. The other 3 Coupons were never turned in.

After putting most of our events on hold for the last couple years, we're trying to make the most use of our post and beam pavilion and host more on-farm events this year. Thank you to everyone who's participated in our events to date. Online registration and payment is required on our website (in the "shop all" page) for each event. We're still working on fine-tuning details and dates for some events, but here's what we have planned:

Forest Bathing Wellness Walk (Sept 10, 10am to noon) – Join us in the forest here on the farm with Wil Bruner, Certified Forest Therapy Guide, founder of Soft Pine Wellness for a 2-hour forest bathing and wellness walk experience. Read more about forest bathing on their website (www.softpinewellness.ca) or contact us directly. Cost is $40 plus tax/person. Deadline to register Sept 8. Rain date Sept 11.

Bouquet Making Workshop (Sept 10 and 17, 1-3pm) – Join us and our friends from Foraged Florals for a 2-hour flower experience and bouquet making workshop featuring Christina's farm-grown dahlias. Learn the elements to make your own magnificent hand tie bouquet to take home and tour Christina's dahlia patch. All supplies, including vase, are provided. Cost is $40 plus tax/person.

Nature Wellness Day at Bar M Ranch (Sept 10, 10 am to 3 pm) – Join us for a day long group of relaxing outdoor wellness and mindfulness experiences here on the farm. Participate in a 2-hour forest bathing and wellness walk experience by Soft Pine Wellness from 10-noon, enjoy a charcuterie board style boxed lunch from Peasant's Pantry under the pavilion and then participate in a 2-hour bouquet making workshop with Foraged Florals from 1-3 pm. Cost is $95 plus tax/person. Deadline to register Sept 8. Rain date Sept 11.

Open Farm Day (Sept 18, 10 am to 4 pm) – This is a free event where you can drop in anytime between 10 am and 4 pm for a farm visit. Meet us under the pavilion, see the tractor display, garden tours and the farm animals. More details on our facebook event page "Atlantic Open Farm Day – Bar M Ranch".

Photography Day (Sept 24, noon to 4 pm) – A day where we invite photographers of all skill levels, including inspiring/armature photographers to the farm to take photos and socialize. Bring your own photographer or tripod/selfie stick to capture some fall family photos. This is a free event.

Seed Saving Workshop (Sept 25, 1-3 pm) - Join us under the pavilion for an interactive and hands-on, 2-hour seed-saving workshop. Learn the basics about how to grow, save, clean and store seeds on a small scale. The workshop involves lessons on seed saving basics, a garden tour and demonstrations with Bar M Ranch grown and saved seeds to take home. Rain or shine. Cost is $20 plus tax/person.

Dahlia Tuber Workshop (Oct 2022) – Learn how to dig/divide/store your dahlia tubers for the winter.

Wreath Making Workshops (Nov 2022) – Learn to make your own Christmas wreath with Christina.

Christmas Tree U-Pick (Dec) – we will be hosting our annual Christmas Tree U-pick.

If you'd like to stay up to date and see what we're up to, check out our website (www.barmranch.ca), facebook page (@barmranchNS), Instagram (@christinacaldwell902 and @barmranch_ns) or farm blog (www.barmranchmeister.blogspot.com). We appreciate it when you help spread the word about our small farm. Feel free to reach out to either of us at any time.
